STONEHENGE OH CANADA! 10th Anniversary Special Edition by Deborah Edwards with Textures From Linda Ludovico

Created by Deborah Edwards, Stonehenge, Oh Canada 10th Anniversary Collection celebrates our country from coast to coast, from British Columbia to Newfoundland and from Ontario to the Northwest Territories. Seventeen new designs and nine existing designs provide a multitude of creative options for your Canadian inspired quilts. This limited edition collection includes a stunning panel with a coordinating falling leaf ombre and a tonal ombre. The unique label panel includes blocks that can be incorporated into any project. A variety of maple leaf prints in various sizes and colors coordinate seamlessly with the featured prints. Textures and blenders complete the collection. The collection is characterized by our classic red, beige, cream and black palette. Three existing and one new wide backing, provide something to suit every consumer sentiment.

Northcott will continue to donate twenty-five cents a yard in support of Quilts of Valour Canada. Oh Canada is a reminder to celebrate the courage of our soldiers and show our appreciation for to our soldiers and their families for their sacrifice. A quilt made from Stonehenge Oh Canada is our way of saying thank you!
