

Tip of the Month

May 2016

Provided by Elaine Theriault of Northcott

Instead of quilting a single Connector Playmat, why not quilt two different panels back to back! This project makes a great portable playmat and when the children get tired of playing on one side, just flip it over to give them a new town to play in.

